

This summer, join us to hear about the inspiring work of one family from Greater Boston making a difference in the lives of women and children in Dominica.

Women's Forum @ UNA-GB

The Women's Forum @ United Nations Association of Greater Boston seeks to raise awareness of the issues facing women in developing countries and to engage others in this effort. In doing this, we recognize that investing in women will create a healthier global society.

Thursday, July 30, 2009

Supporting literacy in Dominica

A family project with Jamie, Alison, Alden & Willow Forbes

Literacy is a cornerstone of every child's development, but remains a particular challenge in developing countries. The Forbes family, having visited Dominica for several years, has begun a grassroots effort to support literacy in the schools and homes of this Eastern Caribbean nation. Jamie, Alison, Alden and Willow will join us for a family-friendly evening including dinner, presentation, and discussion focused on their experience with children and families in Dominica. Join us for storytelling, social action and fun!

At the home of Camie Ford in Marion, MA
Camie's pool is available. Please bring a swimsuit and towel

Alden (8) and Willow (5) with a friend in Dominica

5:00 welcome and dinner, 6:00 presentation and discussion
Detailed address and directions will be sent to attendees

You are invited to donate a children's book or art supplies to go to Dominica

- Supporting Literacy Reservation Form -

Thursday, July 30 - Supporting Literacy

Name _____
Additional Guest(s) _____
Address _____

Tel. _____ Email _____

_____ $ _____ Family - $40
_____ $ _____ Individual - $20
_____ $ _____ Student - $15

UNA-GB Membership

(Women's Forum is a program of UNA-GB)

_____ $ _____ Introductory Membership - $25

All tickets will be held at the door. Your response one week prior to the event is appreciated. Contributions are tax-deductible.

Please make checks payable to
"United Nations Association of Greater Boston"