

Research Links

Country Background Information

BBC's Country Profiles	The BBC country profiles will help you gather basic information about your country including a timeline of key events in its history. http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/country_profiles/default.stm
CIA World Factbook	This website will help you find out basic information about your country, including information about its geography, history, and system of government. https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/
Cyberschoolbus	This is a website set up by the United Nations designed to inform kids about international issues. It also has background information about your country. http://cyberschoolbus.un.org/infonation/index.asp

News Sources

BBC (British Broadcasting Corporation)	One of the most famous news sources in the world. It is one of the best places to see your country is in the news. Also look at their site targeted to younger readers, CBBC. http://bbc.co.uk http://news.bbc.co.uk/cbbcnews/
New York Times	The New York Times is one of best respected newspapers in America. Search around and see what your country is involved in. http://nytimes.com
Radio Free Europe/ Radio Liberty	A daily report of developments in Eastern and Southeastern Europe, Russia, the Caucasus Central Asia, Southwestern Asia and the Middle East. http://www.rferl.org/

United Nations Sources

United Nations	Take a look around the UN's official website to learn more about your committee and what it's doing in the real world. http://www.un.org
United Nations News Centre	This section of the UN website will let you search to see if any press releases have been issued about your topic or country. http://www.un.org/News/
Permanent Missions to the UN	Information and links for the permanent missions to the UN. It is recommended that to use the "Permanent Members" link on the left to find your mission. http://www.un.int/wcm/content/site/portal

Other Non-Governmental Resources

United Nations Association of Greater Boston	Under "Working with Schools", there is information on Model UN conferences in the region as well as research resources for teachers and students. http://www.unagb.org/
United Nations Association - USA	A wide range of Model UN preparation resources. http://www.unausa.org
United Nations Non-Governmental Liaison Service	Description of many of the UN's partners and links (on the right) to many useful sites. http://www.un-ngls.org/index.html